RSPCA Honours Awards

Richard Martin Gold
The Society's highest recognition of an outstanding contribution in the field of animal welfare is awarded in exceptional circumstances to an individual or organisation, not necessarily directly associated with the RSPCA.

Lord Erskine Silver
This award is given in recognition of an important contribution in the field of animal welfare is awarded to an individual or organisation, not necessarily directly associated with the RSPCA.

Arthur Broom Bronze
This award is given in recognition of a contribution in the field of animal welfare is awarded to an individual or organisation, not necessarily directly associated with the RSPCA.

William Wilberforce
This award is presented to an individual or organisation who has worked to further the link between human and animal welfare.

Sir Patrick Moore
This award is presented for outstanding contribution to animal welfare science, in memory of the former astronomer and honorary RSPCA vice-president.

Young Person Award
This award is presented to a young person under sixteen years of age, in recognition of exceptional kindness and dedication to animals.

National & Local Media Award
This award is given to a national or local media organisation or individual journalist who has shown outstanding and sustained contribution to the field of animal welfare.

European Animal Welfare Award
This award is presented to an individual or organisation in recognition of service to European animal welfare.
Overseas Award
This award is presented to an individual or organisation for outstanding achievement in animal welfare outside the UK and Europe.

Queen Victoria Medal (Gold, Silver & Bronze)
The Queen Victoria Medals are given to a member or volunteer of the RSPCA in recognition of exceptional work and for long service.

Gallantry Medal (Gold, Silver, Bronze)
The RSPCA Gallantry medals are awarded for outstanding bravery in the rescue or attempted rescue of an animal.

Margaret Wheatley Cross
This medal is given in memory of Margaret Wheatley, an incredibly brave young woman who died saving a dog from train tracks in 1936 and is awarded for such acts of bravery.

If you think you know an outstanding individual or organisation that deserves to be honoured, please complete the RSPCA Honours nomination form. Completed nomination forms can be sent by email to events@rspca.org.uk or by post to RSPCA Events Team, RSPCA SSC, Wilberforce Way, Southwater, Horsham, RH13 9RS. (Please telephone 0300 123 0598 for any queries.)